EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Joseph Price on 03 January 2007, wherein amendments were discussed in order to provide proper antecedent basis and to clearly define the Applicant's disclosed invention.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 31 has been amended as follows:

In claim 31, lines 7-8, the phrase "the blood volume amount" has been changed to -- a blood volume amount -- and the phrase "the blood component amount" has been changed to -- a blood component amount --.

Claim 36 has been amended to read:

36. The device to measure a degree of acquisition described in claim 31, in case a posture when the subject conducts the work is different from a posture when the subject does not conduct the work, wherein the deoxy-Hb amount is measured in a state when the subject does not conduct the work, [with taking a posture of conducting the work] but has the same posture as if the subject were conducting the work, and a diachronic change of a value [is] calculated by subtracting a deoxy-Hb amount when the subject conducts the work from the deoxy-Hb amount measured in the above state is assumed to be the diachronic change data.

Claim 37 has been amended as follows:

The term -- that -- has been added between "calculates" and "a" in line 12.

Art Unit: 3768

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: None of the prior art teaches or suggests, either alone or in combination, a device comprising an acquisition degree determining portion, wherein the acquisition degree determining portion determines a degree of acquisition as high or low based on diachronic change data of measured deoxy-Hb amounts or of a blood volume amount and a blood component amount taken while a subject performs work, in combination with the other claimed elements.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
